- The NCSSM Distance Education calendar attempts to adhere to the state mandate of 180 days of instruction and the legislative mandate for school year start/end dates.
- It is the intent of the NCSSM Distance Education Department that NCSSM end-of-course grades be the official report card or transcript of the courses taken by your students from this institution.
- When calendars do not align provisions should be made to permit students to attend, or complete work assigned. Students will be responsible for the material covered.
- IVC Classes will be video streamed and archived for student retrieval outside of class.
- Senior grade deadlines will be determined in coordination with individual school sites.
